It Looks From Here

International

The principal event claiming attention in Europe at the present is the famous completion of the long deferred "anchuluss" or union of Austria and Germany. This week the some six million Austrians marched to the poles along with the Germans and returned for der Fuherer a spanking majority of almost a 100 percent. 99.08% of all votes cast were "yes" to the question. Acquaintance with Hitler elections in the past prevented Europe from being very surprised at the vote, but regardless of whether or not the vote means anything there is little doubt that the majority of Austrians are now in favor of the union. If a plebescite had been taken when Schausnigg scheduled it, before the Nazi coup, the vote would probably have revealed a tendency and a majority for preserving the integrity of Austria, but now that it has become an accomplished fact, there are many who would favor that. Change is regarded with suspicion by many persons and a vote to preserve the status quo will usually win except in times of great national stress.

The unification of Austria and Germany and the many attendant problems connected with this unification probably pushes the date of the next European war up by two or three years. It is unlikely that Hitler's next move toward Czechoslovakia, will be made anytime soon. It may be that by the time he is ready to do

Seventy-third Annual G.E.A. Convention Held in Atlanta

Large G.S.C. Delegation Of Faculty, Students

"Better Education for Georgia" will be the theme of the seventy-third annual convention of the Georgia Education Association being held in Atlanta April 14, 15, and 16. A large delegation from GSCW will attend.

Speakers who will appear on the program are Dr. Laura Zirbes, Honorable E. D. Rivers, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Rohde, Monsieur Pierre de Lanux, Dr. Edwin A. Lee, Dr. Walter D. Cocking, Mr. Walter R. Agard, Dr. R. C. Grier, and Dr. Floyd W. Reeves. Meetings of the superintendents and public school officials continued throughout Wednesday and Thursday. The General Session of the GEA and the Representative Assembly was called for Thursday and will continue throughout Saturday. Department meetings are being held today.

According to the program as published in the Georgia Education Journal, several GSCW faculty members

Rec. Officers Go To Atlanta, Tallahassee

Several members of the Recreation Association and Physical Education Majors will attend conventions in Tallahassee and Atlanta the latter part of the month.

The Athletic Federation of College Women will be held in Tallahassee from April 17-20. Virginia Shoffelt, Frances Roane, Eleanor Peebles, Shack Reddick and Miss Andrews will represent G. S. C. W. and Miss Andrews, Frances Roane and Shack Reddick will have part on the program as leaders of discussions.

Senior Physical Education majors On April 21 all the Junior and Senior Health Majors and the faculty will attend a three day Physical Education and Health meeting of the national Health and Atlanta. Those going included Frances Roane, Beth Morrison, Marguerite Spears, Edith Jean Dickey, Cohn Bowers, Eleanor Peebles, Virginia Shoffelt, Shack Reddick, Dr. Manchester, Miss Andrews, Miss Jennings, Miss Kitzinger, Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Ray, and Miss Smith.

G.S.C. Orchestra Plans Tour In Georgia

As the climax to two years of hard work, due largely to Mr. D'Andrea's persuasive powers, and let us say a little personal initiative here and there, the G. S. C. W. Symphony orchestra plans a tour to include Atlanta, Macon, and possibly Athens. Afterwards, on May 6, the home concert will be given in the Russell Auditorium.

In Atlanta, the orchestra will be featured as the symphony orchestra of Atlanta Music week and will appear on Wednesday night, May 4, in

NOTICE

All members of this year's Freshman class who want to work with the YWCA next year are urgently invited to consult Marguerite Jernigan, Margaret Garbutt, or Jane Gilmer during the week of April 18-24, by appointment.

Alumnae Corner Taken Over By G.S.C.W. Clubs

Atlanta

Late in February the club was entertained at a tea at the Rhodes Memorial Hall. After a short business meeting, at which Helen Pace (Mrs. J. S.) Thompson presided, Mrs. J. E. Hays, state historian, gave an interesting talk on the history of Georgia.

On March 25, the club sponsored a benefit bridge party to raise funds for the Mansion Centennial birthday gift. The party was held at the Henry Grady Hotel.

Mrs. Logan Thompson entertained the club at her home on Marietta Road April 2. At that time the club made plans to sponsor a concert by the G. S. C. W. orchestra at a later date.

The club is sponsoring the alumnae luncheon which will be held at the Henry Grady Hotel at 12:30 on Friday April 15.

Savannah

The February meeting of the Savannah Club was held at the home of Frances Thaxton (Mrs. J. P.) Dyer at the Isle of Hope. The alumnae gathered at the home of Marguerite Russell (Mrs. J. H.) Bowden, president of the club, and transportation was furnished from there.

On March 19, the girls from the senior classes of the Commercial

WEEK-END TO START AFTER CLASSES FRIDAY

According to a decision made by the Executive Committee in a meeting Monday night, students will not be allowed to leave for their homegoing week-end Friday until after their last class.

Members of the Executive Committee are Dr. Wells, Dr. Taylor, Dr. Scott, Mr. Thaxton, Dr. Walden, Dr. Salley, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Harper, and Dr. Lindsley.

Y Sends Harner To Conference On Marriage

TeCoah Harner will represent the student body of GSCW at the Fourth Annual Conference on the Conservation of Marriage and the Family, to be held at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, N. C., April 12-15, 1938. This year Prof. Ernest R. Groves, eminent pioneer in the field of education for marriage and the family, and member of the field of education for marriage and the family, and member of the faculty at the University of North Carolina, is introducing a new technique in the sessions of the Conference. On Thursday the main feature of the meeting will be a seminar of college students on the subject, What College Students Want in Marriage Courses.

TeCoah is particularly well-fitted to represent the student body at this seminar. Last year she was Chairman of the Men-Women Relations Group of the YWCA, and during the past summer at the Blue Ridge Conference had the opportunity of conferring with Dr. Harrison S. Elliott on the work of this group on the GSCW campus. This year she has served ably as the Executive Head of the Social Problems Department, in the YWCA. She has been adviser to the Chairman of the Men-Women

G. S. C. Offers Credit For European Tour

New Teachers Engaged For Summer Term

Vocational Guidance, Visual Education, and Applied Curriculum courses will be offered as features of the Summer School this year. The largest summer school enrollment in the history of G. S. C. W. is expected for this summer school, according to announcements made by Dr. Wells, president, and Dr. Taylor, dean.

Several outstanding educators have agreed to offer courses during the summer school here. Among those who are assisting in the Education Department are: Mr. B. A. Lancaster, Supt. of Schools, LaGrange, Georgia

Initiating a new and attractive feature of college education, Dr. S. L. McGee, head of the French Department, will supervise a study tour of Europe for college credit. The "course" is the first of its kind to be offered at GSCW, being an outgrowth and enlargement of a regulation made by the State Department of Education to the effect that travel under the auspices of any of the accredited colleges of the state, for which the college granted credit toward a degree, would be acceptable as credit toward the requirements for a Teachers' Certificate.

The tour as planned will take the form of an artistic and literary pilgrimage to the principal countries of western Europe and will combine the advantages of leisurely travel with the economy of group travel. A distinctive feature of the tour will be the establishment of social contacts between the members of the party, and distinguished Europeans in the several countries visited.

The group will leave New York on June 17th and will travel for about eight weeks, returning on August 13. Forty-one days will be spent in Europe. Half of the time will be spent in Scotland and England. The party will land at Glasgow and after excursions in that section, they will make the Trossachs trip by boat, train, and coach. Three days will be devoted to Edinburgh, Abbotford on the Tweed and Melrose, in whose Dryburgh Abbey Scott is buried, will be visited.

After Scotland, there will be two days travel in the English Lake country. Farther to the south, the party will come to York; then Stratford, the land of Shakespeare, with a performance at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre and visits to Warwick and Kenilworth Castles. Oxford will be the next stop, and from there they will go to Salisbury.

Five days will be devoted to London

STUDENTS ASKED TO SUBMIT RECREATION CENTER NAMES

It's got everything but a name—meaning the Recreation Center four miles out of Milledgeville. And what good is a Recreation Center without a clever name? We don't want to be arbitrary about this thing, so we are throwing the field open and letting any who will suggest names for the place.

The present plan, as suggested by Dr. Wells, is for names submitted by students to be turned into the Colonnade office. A deadline will be set, and following the submission of names, one name selected by the Recreation Board and the Colonnade editors as most suitable and clever, will be passed on as final, after approval by Dr. Wells. This name will be presented to the Board of Regents of the University System.

The lake and cabin were finished in record time, work having been started only a short time ago. The lake is full now, and if you can't credit that, you should go out there some Sunday and see the motor boats in action. The cabin is also finished and painted. It has been used several times since its completion to house visitors to the campus. All of the work has been done by the Federal government with the CCC boys, the state prisoners, and the carpenters regularly engaged by the college.

The Rec. Center has incredible possibilities, and in the future it is planned that work be done on many new phases of the place. Tentative plans are being laid for playground, space for outdoor ball, fountains, formal gardens, azalea gardens, wild gardens, rock gardens, picnic grounds for students and their visitors, outdoor ovens for cooking, camping space for tents, and a great many more cabins. Also seen as a possibility is a faculty clubhouse.

Work on the four new buildings on the campus is going on apace. The buildings are Health and Physical Education Building, Music Building, new dormitory, and the new practice school. According to contract, the buildings will be completed by September 1, with the Music Building being finished first.

The new dormitory has been agreed on as the future Senior Hall when it is finished and equipped. Outstanding features of the new dormitory will be better dining hall and kitchen equipment, trunk rooms, a better Recreation room than the other dormitories now have, and overflow rooms on the third floor to house visitors on the campus.

Sunday Go-to-Meeting Outfits As Seen By Dress Parader

"April showers bring spring flowers," but they bring spring dresses too, as you will soon see from the following account of what I saw last week-end.

Margaret Bracey was looking exceptionally good in a dusky pink crepe Sunday. The skirt was very full with six gores; the neck of the dress was square and tiny covered buttons came down the front to the waist. The sleeves were short and puffed, and the belt, out of the same material as the dress, tied in a bow knot in front. Bracey wore a tricky little brimless straw hat of navy blue with a bright bunch of spring flowers perched on top and a long veil; her accessories were also navy blue.

Dot Howell was really getting around at Little Commencement, and it isn't any wonder—you should have seen that divine soft pink chiffon evening dress she was wearing! The skirt was very full and accented pleated at the waist around. The dress was fitted at the waist. Tiny rhinestone straps finished off this altogether beautiful dress.

"Little Lulu," to some known as Shoffette, looked quite sporty in her tailored rough crepe; the dress was a lovely shade of aqua and looked particularly well on the brunette involved in this description. On each side of the front there were stitched pleats, which started at the top of the waist and went into the skirt. The sleeves were puffed with a stitched collar and the neck was finished off with a little stitched buster brown collar. A brown and white polka dot tie added a touch of color to the outfit.

Aqua seems to be the predominant shade on the Dress Parade this week and Eloise Wilson was looking quite springy in an aqua silk dress last Sunday. The skirt was very full and stitched to give the effect of pleats. The neck was in the shape of a V and the waist was tucked in the same line as the neck. Tiny covered buttons came down the front to the belt, which was out of the same material as the dress with a narrow band of jaggie tan patent leather. The sleeves were short and tucked like the waist. Eloise wore a bunch of yellow, jaggie tan and green flowers on the shoulder.

Mattielee Stapleton's white cotton shantung is just the thing for spring. The dress is shirt waist style. The color and cuffs are stitched in red wool; there are little pearl buttons down the waist to the belt which is also stitched in red wool. The skirt is pleated in the front and back. Margaret Garbutt looked lovely last week in a redingote dress. The coat was of some sheer dark brown material, and the slip was brown and white cross-checks. It buttoned up the waist with small buttons set at intervals in groups of three. A flaming orange scarf, tucked in at the neck, added the necessary touch of color.

For this week-end, in particular, we suggest on behalf of the student body that the Executive Committee reconsider and give us a week-end which will begin at eleven-thirty on Friday and continue through Monday.

And for week-ends which lie in the dim future of next year, we also suggest that the students would be better pleased with one long week-end, which was scheduled, than with a choice of several week-ends, which would have to begin after classes on Friday and end on Sunday.

Library Acquires New Books

2110 people attended the Hobby Show held in the library this past week, according to announcement made today by the Library Staff. This compares very favorably with the 1491 people who attended the last Hobby Show.

Eighty people had exhibits in the show. The library staff wishes to express their thanks for the cooperation of the students and faculty in making the hobby show such a huge success.

In addition, the library wishes to announce the number of new books that are now available to the reading public. Among these are "Action at Aquila" by Harvey Allen; "Joseph in Egypt" by Thomas Mann (2 volumes); "Amphitryon 38"; "This is My Story" by Eleanor Roosevelt; "The Citadel" by Cronin; "The Rains Came" by Louis Bromfield; "Northwest Passage" by Kenneth Roberts; "Madame Curie" by Eve Curie; "Conversion at Midnight" by Edna St. Vincent Millay; "Assignment in Utopia" by Eugene Lyons; "The Tyranny of Words" by Stuart Chase.

Often there are duplicates in the reading room and in the rental library. It is the custom of the rental library to turn the books over to the reading room when new best-sellers take their place, in order that there will be opportunity for all to read the books.

A particularly good feature of the Rental Library is the large number of plays that have been acquired recently, by request of a good percentage of the student body.

McVey, Barnett Attend Convention

Miss McVey and Miss Barnett have just returned from the annual Southern Regional Conference for Vocational Home Economics and Agriculture. The conference was called by the federal agents in each area.

The meeting was held in Richmond, Virginia, beginning on April 1. Miss McVey and Miss Barnett returned April 11.

that England will have changed her present stand of attempting to get along with the dictators and have gone "back to the league" or the stand of opposition advocated by Eden. How futile the Chamberlain attempts at conciliation have been are common facts, and just how long he will be able to maintain popular support for this position is questionable.

England has to all intents and purposes declared that at least for the present she will do nothing in the event of German aggression in Czechoslovakia. This attitude leaves France in a delicate situation, and especially so since the French are at present rather fully occupied with attempts at crisis in the home government. The government of Premier Blum was forced out over the question of drastic control bills designed to put the government on virtually a wartime, semi-socialized footing, and the present Daladier government is not likely to last very long.

In Spain Franco's legions, supported by Italian and German troops and airplanes, are pushing on relentlessly toward Barcelona, the next objective in the insurgent advance. It would appear from this point that the government's resistance is at last being sapped and that the heroic defenses of Madrid will not be repeated. The morale of the government seems to be disintegrating under the terrific assaults of foreign and domestic troops. The separation of Catalonia from the other government territory seems to mean the end of the war, but there is no guarantee of this. There may be another Gualdajara.

Regardless of the outcome, bombastic little Franco will have his hands full for a long time to come in subjugating and making into a fascist nation a Spain in which such an overwhelming portion of the population is fanatically opposed to him. The death of democracy in Spain is an ugly sight, but its death has been gallant, and it may rise again from its ashes.

Week-end To Start After Classes Friday

Because the plan for scheduling week-ends as it was managed last quarter worked so well, the plan is being mulled over for a regular thing. Last quarter, the student body as a whole bowed its head in silent prayer of thanksgiving that there was any homecoming at all. That accounts for the fact that there was no dissension at the arrangements made. Anything at all was a godsend under the circumstances. It is now vastly different. The students consider it their inalienable right to have a week-end the fall and spring quarters which will be the length of the regular week-ends. Just to establish a referent for the word regular, it might be added that the week-ends, for a long time since, have started on Friday at eleven-thirty A. M. and ended Monday night at 9:30 P. M.

For numbers of reasons, we would suggest, tactfully and quakingly—not demand, merely suggest—that we keep to the "good old ways" as far as this week-end business is concerned.

This quarter Executive Committee has decided that it would be the thing to do to let us go home after our last class on Friday afternoon and come back Monday night. This was decided on because it would not be practical to give us a choice of three as was done last quarter because of the Mansion Celebration. Although the mental curves taken in the reasoning of the committee are hard to follow, and if you don't watch closely you will be thinking you are getting something out of it, it is the policy of the administration to consider the attitudes, and wishes, of the minorities on the campus. It is safe to say that the minority involved in this particular case feels as deeply as any minority ever felt about anything.

Although the number of students who would have to stay on the campus over Friday night would be in a minority, it will be remembered that it is the policy of the administration to consider the attitudes, and wishes, of the minorities on the campus. It is safe to say that the minority involved in this particular case feels as deeply as any minority ever felt about anything.

For this week-end, in particular, we suggest on behalf of the student body that the Executive Committee reconsider and give us a week-end which will begin at eleven-thirty on Friday and continue through Monday.

And for week-ends which lie in the dim future of next year, we also suggest that the students would be better pleased with one long week-end, which was scheduled, than with a choice of several week-ends, which would have to begin after classes on Friday and end on Sunday.

In Praise of G. E. A.

This week we approach the seventy-third annual convention of the Georgia Education Association. The convention is of the worthiest movements of its kind and the Georgia Education Association is certainly to be commended for its efforts to further education in the state.

The authorities in charge of the program have collected for speakers an admirable group of interesting and authoritative speakers, prominent among these being Mrs. Ruth Bryan Robo and Monsieur Pierre de Lanux. The program in itself is well planned and well arranged. The theme of the convention is the very broad topic "Better Education for Georgia" which covers a large territory. It is certainly the desire and aim of every person interested in the welfare of the state to have better education in Georgia, for we realize that only through education can progress be made. The Georgia Education Association Convention is the one time when educators all over the state convene to discuss their various problems and plan on the future of education in the state.

Covering all phases of education from kindergarten to adult education, the convention theme will be enlarged upon from every different angle. We notice that Dr. Willis A. Sutton, Superintendent of the Atlanta Schools, stressing the value of health education. The recent music festival on our campus has brought to our close attention the possibilities in music education.

Our state has lagged far behind most of the others in proper education for the youth of the state, as well as for the adults. Only in recent years have we begun to make definite progressive steps, and rapidly have we come forward. It is the hope of all that the same rapid strides will be made in the future as have been made in the past.

Particularly noteworthy are new courses that are being offered to prospective teachers—such things as vocational guidance, visual education, and curriculum construction. These three courses are being offered here at summer school and mark forward thinking in pedagogy as a profession.

There is not much comment to make on the GEA movement that has not already been made. We only offer our commendation.

Democrats against the leadership of the "reform" attempts at this session of congress. The bill itself, according to every expert politician, is not dangerous, and will take the fight to the people in the forthcoming Congressional battle. The outcome of these battles involving both administration supporters and administration critics will be interesting as indications of the way the wind is blowing outside of Congress. It may be that people are tiring of Roosevelt and the present type of administration, but if administration so as to reapture control of the party for the nomination of an anti-New Deal democrat in 1940.

Its defeat probably marks the end

Stories By Scandal-light

To begin with a very flowery apology to be offered to Katherine Combs. There was a slight error in the account given last week of the cottage episode. The party involved was Frances Wilkie, and not the "sportin'" Miss Combs. Just by way of parentheses, I will add that you must buy all your Easter eggs from Wilkie. It seems that she is taking up the art of poultry on 3rd floor Terrell with astounding serenity. The boy friend from N. C., as sent her a real live chicken all the way from that far port.

It's a fact not to be denied that most of the fairer sex lose their pretty heads whenever they see a rat, but it seldom happens that one actually loses her supper. This is exactly what Mary Davidson did, only it wasn't a real rat at all. Honey Moore sent Margaret Brooks a rubber rat from town as the "surprise" Margaret had over and over asked for, and Margaret planted it in Mary's bed. Mary started to bed, turned back the cover—oh, well, maybe you are losing interest.

This happened before the day of chapel proctors, but it will always be good, because when she said it she was speaking in deep earnest. The last time Professor Maetz of Macon was here, Ruby Beck said to the girl sitting by her: "You know, I can study better while he's playing 'then anybody else that ever comes here.'"

I would have thought that the music festival would have left this column full to the brim, but I have been able to find only two good stories. This is one of them but the best one can be brought to light only at the cost of my life which ain't worth much, but I'm scared to squeal.

Martha Smith and Izle Daniels acquired two of the little high-school boys—or at least succeeded through the intel steps. They began their conquest by remote control—which is always wise—by catty pitching oranges from their room window to the hungry mouths below (don't take that statement to directly, their aims were to get the boys' attention).

Recreation Association Activities

The campus "Elite", that is, the Cotillion Club, met Friday afternoon, danced and elected officers for the club. The President is Frances Wilkie, and Secretary-Treasurer is Mary Blanche Johnson.

The committee appointed to discuss plans for the club included: Myrtle Ogletree, Sue Morris, and Frances Wilkie.

It was decided that all forms of dancing be taken up with special emphasis on the improvement of dancing from every standpoint.

A committee is to be appointed to buy a variety of records including: Tangles, Waltzes, and Rumbas. We are anxious to see this group make social dancing on the campus what it should be.

Tennis

Do you want to play tennis? Most of you do and probably find it difficult to get a court. The Recreation Association adds the students on the campus to the tennis courts after playing for one hour. You can easily see how this will avoid confusion and will give more students an opportunity to keep up with their playing.

Let's cooperate with the Recreation Association and make it possible for everyone to play tennis!

Fencing

We hope you get to see the "FENCERS" in action on the stage before the picture. The finals in the tournament are nearing the close and everyone is wondering who the winner will be. Can you pick the winner? Let's try!

Golf

Be sure and get in the beginner's golf group before it's too late. They look as if they are enjoying practice on the front campus and you'll be welcome!

Folk Dancing

On Monday afternoon the Folk Dancers added a Russian dance to their rapidly growing list. The dance is called, was composed of almost as many steps as the letters in its name, and each one was characteristic of the stalwart Russian people.

Although some of the steps are fast moving, the folk group enter into each part with equal enthusiasm, and are still making plans for the future.

It was agreed at the last meeting that the group join the Folk Council which is a national organization.

These dancers are A-1 in recreation of the campus!

Softball

Activity in softball has become so lively that more teams are being organized. With this an encouragement, why not have every other sport just as active? You can choose your favorite leisure time sport and play. Softball and other sports are calling you—answer by being out today!

Tennis Club

The Tennis Club held its first official meeting Thursday at 4:00 and elected Martha Liddell as president. Several active committees were appointed to continue plans for the group. Among those were: Committee on Courtesy and Regulations on the tennis courts.

Vivian Harris, (Chairman); Alice McDonald, Hulda Penland. Committee on Programs for the quarter: Jane McConnell, (chairman); Belle Nole, Dot Peacock.

Committee on Improvement of Courts: Annella Brown, (chairman); Ruby Donald, Edith Jean Dickson. That sounds good, doesn't it?

Archery

With the new arrows now ready for use, archery is definitely heading for a glorious outcome! Join the

Capel and Wynn Attend Atlanta Publicity Meet

Mr. Capel and Dr. Wynn left Friday for Atlanta where they will represent GSCW at the fifth district Conference of Directors of College Publicity being held at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel Friday and Saturday of this week.

The conference, an annual event, was held last year at G. S. C. W. under the direction of Dr. Wynn, then president of the district group. Kurtley Brown, Auburn director, heads the group this year with E. G. Cox, of Georgia Tech, acting as secretary.

Both Mr. Capel and Dr. Wynn will appear on the program. Mr. Capel is to speak Friday on "The Use of the Miniature Camera in College Publicity" and Dr. Wynn will call on his long experience in the Publicity field at the annual banquet that evening for a talk on "Embarrassing Moments in College Publicity."

ing "brains" just as Mr. Thexton would have them do, but somebody said "hair."

And now for a very creditable action on the part of a certain unassuming wimp. The other night right in the middle of it, she got cold (won't Dr. Wynn love that sentence?) She got up to get a coat to spread over the bed. Being unable to find one she took a blanket off her roommate's bed. Nearer daylight she realized in a frantic frenzy fully realizing what she had done. She found the roommate very nearly frozen and trying to capture a little warmth by covering up with a pillow. She carefully and repeatedly spread the blanket over her. But that's not all—the exposed subject was the victim of a severe cold the next day.

Senior Play To Feature Beauty Contest

Seniors will sponsor a Beauty Contest for GSCW on May 11 at their play, "Hearts and Gowns". The contest has been worked into the play and enacts an important part along with the style show.

The scene takes place at Dunn's Emporium, where the beauty contest is to be a feature of a style show. The winner will be selected by judges chosen by the senior play committee and will be announced at the end of the style show in the play.

The contestants will be selected from the different classes by committees or by the class officers. The president of each class has been delegated to do the above as she sees fit.

Seniors will model pajamas, negligees, sport outfits, street clothes, evening frocks, tea gowns, and evening clothes. The models as yet have not been selected.

In correction of an error made in last week's Colonnade we wish to state that Mrs. Max Noah is helping with the directing and not Miss Lucie Neese.

Those helping Mary Kethley on committees are: Dancing, Marguerite Spears and Frances Rouse; Songs, Bonnie Burge; Business, Betty Shell; Program, Mary Edge; Posters, Beth Morrison and Rebecca Mize and Cole Pope; Stage, Lois Hotcher and Edna Smith and Charlotte Payne and Emma Lloyd Jenkins; Properties, Eleanor Berry and Jean Armour; Costumes and Style Show, Lucy Caldwell and Style Show, Lucy Caldwell; Chapel Program; Annella Brown and Kathryn Tedder; Make-up, Margaret Fowler.

Special notice—Edith Crawford will have charge of the music.

Alumnae Corner

The Alumnae Association wishes to get the present addresses of the people listed. Below are the names, years of graduation, and last known addresses. In giving the addresses of these, the Association particularly requests that the street addresses be given.

The Alumnae Office is planning to put out an up-to-date directory of graduates of the school.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR PLANS FAREWELL PARTY

Members of the Milledgeville College Choir will join together in a final event of the year as they celebrate Saturday evening with their annual banquet. This one evening which has been looked forward to all year will feature several events of interest to the choir members.

The main speaker of the evening will be Rev. Rufus Oakley of the Presbyterian Church. Other speakers will be Dr. Guy H. Wells and Col. J. H. Jenkins. Musical selections will be presented by Frank D'Andrea and Bonnie Burge.

At the close of the banquet the choir will sing, informally, one of their favorite numbers, "Adoramus Te."

Dr. Henry Rogers will preside as toast-master.

don, with a side trip to Canterbury, England's cradle of Christianity.

After these days of travel, they will go to the continent, first visiting Holland, with Amsterdam, Leyden, and the Hague as the principal points of interest. From there they will go up the Rhine to Cologne.

One full day will be spent in Heidelberg, Germany's oldest University town and land of the Student Prince. In Switzerland the group will stop at a little town near Interlaken named Wilderswil, at the foot of the massive Jungfrau and Wetterhorn peaks. An open-air performance of "William Tell" in Interlaken will be included in the program.

From Interlaken they will go by train through the Oberland to Montreux, making thus one of the most scenic rail trips in Switzerland. From Montreux the party will go by steamer to the city of Geneva.

Last will be five days in cosmopolitan, gay, artistic, picturesque Paris. Travel arrangements and the details of the program will be handled by the Open Road, Inc., a travel organization maintained in the interests of international friendship and education. The group will be accompanied in each country by national and local guides who will act as aids, interpreters, and hosts. These young men and women are not professional guides, but are picked for their knowledge of the traditions and history of their native lands, their ability to speak English, and their personality. They will arrange teas, lectures, interviews and visits with professors, students and literary people in their respective countries.

The cost of the tour, New York to New York, will be $380 third class ocean travel, or $680 tourist class. The figures cover all the items usually included on a tour cost, plus several things which are distinctive to this particular tour: five performances of plays, concert or opera, which will be incorporated into the program and to the social functions which will be planned through European friends.

Printed folders and mimeographed information are available for those interested.

NEWS FROM GSCW ALUMNAE

High, Senior High, Pope School, St. Vincent's Academy, and Armstrong Junior College shared honors with students at home from GSCW when the Savannah Club entertained at an informal tea at the home of Bonnie Wells (Mrs. F. M.) Turner, 330 Abercorn Street.

During the afternoon short talks were made by visiting GSCW students. Louise Walker spoke on "Dormitory Life"; Allene Fountain on "Lyceums"; Rose MacDonald on "The YWCA"; Grace Clarke on "The Privileges at GSCW"; and Joan Butler on "College Government."

Milledgeville

The Baldwin County Club sponsored a radio program in February. Speakers included Maggie Jenkins, state alumnae president, Nan Barksdale (Mrs. W. M.) Miller, Baldwin County alumnae president and William Thomas (Mrs. F. E.) Bone, chairman for Mansion Restoration. Helen Maxwell (Mrs. L. P.) Longino and Helen Granade (Mrs. Edgar) Long each sang a solo. The program was centered around the Mansion centennial.

Five hundred letters have been sent out by the Baldwin County Club to students and graduates of GSCW who have lived or are now living here. These letters requested contributions for the Mansion restoration and have resulted in the collection of one hundred and thirty-nine dollars.

At the April meeting, Emily Hall (Mrs. R. H.) Reynolds, Public Welfare Director, spoke to the club on one phase of public assistance.

LaGrange

A patriotic program featured the February meeting held at the home of Mrs. John Carley with Bonnie Bozeman and Rachael O'Neal as co-hostesses. The birthday of Frank L. Stanton and Georgia Day were the topics chosen for celebration.

Lucille Corless was hostess to the club at her home on Ridley Avenue for the March meeting. Mariam Crider, president of the club, directed the business meeting, after which a review of "Forty Years on Main Street" was presented by Eleanor Orr.

Gainesville

Marie Tucker (Mrs. Arthur) Butts, former president of the Hall County Club, was the honor guest at a recent meeting of that group with Mildred Meador and Ruth Twigg (Mrs. Ralph) Phillips as joint hostesses. Marie's husband has been transferred to Athens where we hope the family will be as happy as they have been in Gainesville.

Lucile Stewart (Mrs. W. D.) Young succeeds Marie as president.

Marietta

The Cobb County Club entertained Dr. Edwin Scott, Katherine Scott and Cecil Humphrey (Mrs. W. D.)

Hardy at a beautiful luncheon at their March meeting.

This club also sponsored the third in a series of radio programs presented by GSCW alumnae over WSB on last Saturday.

Fitzgerald

The youngest of all GSCW clubs was organized within the past few months at Fitzgerald. Under the leadership of Alice Lee McCormick, the club has outlined interesting plans for the future, and bids fair to be one of the most active in the state.

Columbia, S. C.

Through the interest and efforts of Laura Lee Gibson, the GSCW alumnae living in South Carolina were contacted and invited to meet for a luncheon during the State Teachers' Association meeting in March. Thirty-seven were present, including Mabry Harper, Katherine Weaver and Cecil Humphrey (Mrs. W. D.) Hardy, Alumnae Secretary, who went from the College to meet with the group.

Members will take part in the discussions planned. Dr. Wells will speak in a discussion of "The Needs of Preparation of Teachers in Secondary Schools in Georgia" today and Mrs. F. E. Dorris of the Geography Department here will speak Thursday to the Geography Department meeting on "The Geography of Georgia."

Dr. Laura Zirbes of the Department of Education, the Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, will speak at the Second General Session of the Convention, which is to be held at the City Auditorium, to-night at 8 o'clock. Her address is scheduled for 9:15, and her subject will be, "The Schools at Work on the Problem of Living." She will also address the luncheon meeting of the Association, which is to be held Friday at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Governor Rivers will address the First General Session of the Convention on the subject, "State Support for Education." This meeting is to be held at the City Auditorium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Rohde, long identified with the political and diplomatic circles of this country as one of the outstanding states-women of all time will speak at the GEA and Superintendents' banquet, which will officially open the Convention on Thursday evening at the Ansley Roof Garden. Her subject will be the "Cooperative Movement in Scandinavia." She will also be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Elementary Principals Department, which is to be held at the Ansley Hotel Friday at 12:30 o'clock. Her subject for this occasion will be, "This Business of Diplomacy." Mrs. Rohde was the first woman from the south to sit in Congress, the first woman to serve on the Congressional Foreign Affairs Committee, the first woman to represent the United States at the Interparliamentary Union in London, and the first woman to serve in a diplomatic capacity for the United States.

Monsieur Pierre de Lanux, former director of the League of Nations Office in Paris, France, and at present, official lecturer of the Federation de l'Alliance Francaise of America through whose auspices he is brought to the United States, will speak to the G. E. A. through the courtesy of the de l'Alliance Francaise Group of Atlanta.

Dr. Walter D. Cocking, Dean, College of Education, University of Georgia, will speak on "The Problems of Rural Education as Related to a General Program of Education in Georgia" on Saturday morning at the City Auditorium. He will also be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Georgia Association of Childhood Education, to be held at the Atlanta Athletic Club, Friday afternoon. His subject for this talk will be "The Importance of Teachers Being Well Rounded Personalities."

Mr. Walter R. Agard, Professor, Department of Classics University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin will speak at the Saturday morning session of the Convention, which is to be held at the Auditorium at 9:30. He will deliver an illustrated lecture on the topic, "The Influence of Greek Mythology on Modern Architecture." He will also address the meeting of the Georgia Classical Association in the Dixie Ball Room of the Henry Grady Hotel, Friday.

Dr. R. C. Grier, President of Erskine College, Due West, South Carolina will address the Saturday morning session of the Convention on the subject, "The Teacher as a Citizen."

Dr. Floyd W. Reeves, Chairman, Advisory Committee on Education for the President Washington, D. C. will speak at the First General Session of the Convention, which is to be held at the City Auditorium, Thursday evening. His subject will be "Federal Aid for Education."

Choir Banquet To Climax Music Season

Members of the Milledgeville College Choir will join together in a final event of the year as they celebrate Saturday evening with their annual banquet. This one evening which has been looked forward to all year will feature several events of interest to the choir members.

The main speaker of the evening will be Rev. Rufus Oakley of the Presbyterian Church in Milledgeville. Other speakers will be Dr. Guy H. Wells and Col. J. H. Jenkins. Musical selections will be presented by Frank D'Andrea and Bonnie Burge.

This is the one night of the year when "all" will be told. The story of the choir tour, which is looked forward to with much nervousness and unrest on the part of those who went along, will be read by Bonnie Burge. Included in this scandal-sheet, as it were, will be all the dumbest stunts of the choir members, and no favorites are played! Something new will be done this year, because some of the so-called dumb stunts will be recorded in action. Mr. Noah took along a motion picture camera, much to the dismay of the choir, and expects to see quite a few surprised faces when he runs off the picture.

At the close of the banquet the choir will sing, informally, one of their favorite numbers, "Adoramus Te."
